Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from 1861 to 1865: Personal Recollections and Experiences in the Confederate Army The papers comprising this volume were begun without any plan or purpose of writing a book or of publishing them in pamphlet or any other form. They were written as opportunity permitted, in the intervals that could be spared from the duties of active business, and without any attempt at elaboration. I had entered the Confederate army when a mere lad, barely sixteen years of age; was in the first battle of the war and in very nearly the last, and when the Bonnie Blue Flag was furled after the surrender of Generals Lee and Johnston, I gave my parole, along with my comrades at Gainesville, Alabama, where General Dick Taylor surrendered the department in which I was then serving. I had served through the entire war, from the beginning to the end, the first half in Virginia and Maryland, and the last in Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama. Thirty years later I was impelled, not only by the suggestions of friends, but by my own...
