Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Orator; A Compendium of English Eloquence: Containing Selections From the Most Celebrated Speeches of the Past Present [It has been deemed advisable to admit several speeches of the late Prince Consort into this collection; for though His Royal Highness was not to be ranked amongst the greatest orators, yet as a practised and accomplished speaker, considering all the circumstances in which he was placed, he has perhaps never been surpassed. The chief characteristics of his style may be pronounced to have been earnestness, clearness, and exhaustiveness - a desire to aim at great principles of action, and to preach first and foremost the true beauty of usefulness, seemed ever uppermost in his mind. Moreover, his large and generous sympathies with the wants and wishes of the labouring classes of his adopted country, and his hearty co-operation and support in all schemes for the amelioration of their condition, will, it is hoped, cause his words to find always a cherished place in the recollections of Englishmen, though, to estimate his speeches with fairness, the position...
