Mason Crest. 1 Laminated Cover(s), 2003. hard. Book Condition: New. Inspired by the artist's style of capturing movement in bold outlines and dynamic forms of bright color, this life of Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec is illustrated throughout with lighthearted crayon and pastel drawings in an oversized picture book. His story is told for readers 8 to 11 from his mother's perspective, through her words and his letters, as she watches her physically fragile son move to the flamboyant Montmartre section of Paris in the late 19th century. Once there, his work as an artist, lithographer, and illustrator ensure him lasting fame as the creator of unforgettable poster images of the city's Belle Époque. 32.
