FAILURE MOST MISERABLE-PAKISTAN ARMY'S 1 CORPS IN 1971 WAR (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It appears that it was Pakistani state policy to find no fault with the mighty corps commanders . Shaukat Riza picked up by Pakistans clownish looking military dictator to write Pakistan army's official history was selected since he was senile and old and harmless, and because he wrote what was regarded as politically correct ! Unofficial guiding mandate to shaukat riza was to blame Mr ZA Bhutto for all military failures of Pakistan. My personal association with some of the events in this narrative is as following . The famous triple massive minefield of Shakargarh was laid by 6 Engineer Battalion commanded by my father in one single fateful month November 1971 with a loss of one sapper soldier killed. Then Major Sardar Yahya Effendi who fought this battle as a grade two staff officer was a dear friend of mine and my regimental officer. In addition Effendi also served as a grade two staff officer with my father in 1973-74 in the Military Operations Directorate where my father was serving as a SO 1 Plans. Colonel Yahya Effendi also wrote PAVO 11 Cavalry's history . In January 2008 Effendi was gracious enough to share with me his personal account of the Changez Force. I wanted to clarify many points of this narrative however fate had it that Effendi died in late 2008. 6 Engineer Battalion was deployed in East Pakistan in 1971. My father was serving as grade two staff officer operations of 16 Division which was rail moved and airlifted from Quetta to East Pakistan in March 1971 in a Guinness book record time of just six days . In September 1971 he was promoted to LTC...
