Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Gettysburg Address: When Written, How Received, Its True Form Arnold, in his History of Lincoln and the Overthrow of Slavery, asserts that the President while on his way from the White House to the battlefield was notified that he would be expected to make some remarks, and that asking for some paper a rough sheet of foolscap was handed to him; retiring to a seat by himself, with a pencil he wrote the address. Similarly Ben Perley Poore says in his Reminiscences of Lincoln that his remarks at Gettysburg - were written in the car on his way from Washington to the battlefield, upon a piece of pasteboard held on his knee. In the beautiful story by Mrs. Andrews entitled The Perfect Tribute, which, because of its wide circulation in the magazine in which it first appeared, and subsequently as a daintily printed book, has done much to form popular opinion of the composition and delivery of the Address, it is said that the President after gazing wistfully across the car at Edward Everett...
