Munich-based businessman Christian Zott undertook a 5000 kilometre long journey: on foot, almost 40 kilometres a day, through the South of Europe from the most westerly point in Portugal to the Eastern border on the Bosphorus. The book, developed during this hike, is an unusual reflection on the forms of love in our times. Mind map is a term used by psychologists and managers referring to a cognitive technique for ordering and visualising one's thoughts. Christian Zott uses this method to examine the phenomenon of love in greater detail. His novel 'Mind Map of Love' consists of 21 chapters written in the form of complete, self-contained short stories. These take place at various locations mostly European cities but also pastoral landscapes which are never specifically named but which are always clearly identifiable. At the end of the individual stories there are turning points at which the reader him/herself can determine the future of the two main figures, Romeo and Juliet. Each of these episodes forms a potential point in a universal love story....
