On a cold winter evening in Milwaukee, WI just weeks before the famous Blizzard of 47 as her mom was about to enjoy Queen Anne cherries for dinner, I would become the second of five children in the growing family. When I was born, my dad called me Suzie but my older brother pronounced it Boozie. This was the beginning of my humorous and always challenging life in a large family at the beginning of the Baby Boom Generation. Moving in with our twinkly-eyed grandfather after living in Post War barracks gave my life even more family adventures as I started school in my dad s old grade school, Keefe Avenue. It was walking home from this school that I almost got killed, and it changed our lives forever. My story is told with love and laughs as I recall, as best as I can, our family vacations and collections of pets in small town Cedarburg. Join me...
